Nervous Prostration

NERVES ALL ON END.

Nervous, Irritable Spells, Moving Specks Before the Eyes,

All Cured by Dr. Hallock's Wonderful Electric Pills for Weak, Worn-Out, Nervous People.

Wasting away of the nerve centres, which are the reservoirs of life, the hardest to bear of all human ailments, and unless corrected, ultimately cause Paralysis, Nervous Prostration and a complete breakdown. Women are especially susceptible to Nervous Troubles. Sometimes their nerves are "all on end," a humming of a door, anything falling on the floor or any sudden noise will startle them that they will let anything fall that they may have in their hand. One lady told us that she had on several occasions dropped her baby and she was in constant dread. A few boxes of Dr. Hallock's Wonderful Electric Pills cured her. Her nerves were strong and completely restored her nerve centres, and she was able to go about her daily labors without fear of dropping baby and full of confidence. Another effect of the wasting away of the nerve centres is what people call Nervous spells. They feel tired, not strong, and at the least annoyance, you have a spell, and you feel as though you would drop. Dr. Hallock's Electric Pills have a powerful effect on the nerves, and will cure this malady by restoring the nerve centres. The pills are made for this very purpose and are different from any other Nerve or Blood Remedy. Give them a trial.

Dr. Hallock's Electric Pills thoroughly tested for past 50 years. They are perfect. They are safe and can be taken with safety by the most delicate.

Sold at stores or sent from laboratory, sealed, 4 per box; 6 boxes, sufficient to cure most obstinate cases. $5.

Circular sent, sealed, free. HALLOCK DRUG CO., 100 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Pills for sale by Burrow, Martin & Co., 225 Main Street, and 9 Hill Street, Norfolk, Va. Trade supplied.

VIRGINIA—IN THE CORPORATION COURT OF THE CITY OF NORFOLK, AUGUST 22.

In the matter of opening Tripoli street and widening Wolf street and condemning the same and the various parcels of land therein, and the sum of $83,057.75 being paid into court by the city of Norfolk, the said sum being the total of the various amounts assessed on the various parcels of land therein, and the various reports of B. P. Loyall, M. D. J. Wrenn, C. K. Jones and John N. Vaughan for the various parcels of property, described in said reports, necessary for opening Tripoli street from Charlotte street to Bute street, and in the various reports of J. A. Winslow, T. B. Knight, A. F. Santos and Elias E. Guy for the various parcels of property, described in said reports, necessary for widening Wolf street from Cumberland street to Brown street, and the various amounts making up said total being stated in the various orders this day entered in the court, what persons are entitled to the various parcels of property, described in said reports, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree, in order that it may be properly displayed, the said various amounts of money making up the said total, that James L. Goode is hereby appointed a commissioner to ascertain and report to the court what persons are entitled, and in what proportions, to each of the said several sums of money making up the said total.

And the Court doth further order that notice of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the city of Norfolk.

A Copy—Teste: L. ROYSTER, Clerk.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23, 1899.

The parties interested in the above order will take notice that I shall proceed to execute the same on WEDNESDAY, the 7th day of September, 1899, at 10 o'clock a. m., at my office, No. 47 Bank street, in the city of Norfolk, Va., when and where they are required to appear with such books, papers, vouchers and evidence as will enable me to comply with the said order.

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Another Liquor Fight Coming in Village of Holland.

J. Walter Hosler Cuts His Foot—Wallace Circus Coming—Mr. Bowen's Condition About the Same—Mr. J. C. Holland to Marry Miss Stella A. Jones.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Sept. 7.—There is another Holland liquor fight coming. That is a town where they have a hot contest about whiskey nearly every year. Sometimes the "drys" bring down a lot of ladies and one or two clergymen to sit in court for their moral influence.

The person who has given notice that he will apply for a license is J. H. Bryant. He wants to sell it in the house where Benjamin Jell applied for a license last year. The application was then denied in the County and Circuit Courts. Justice of the Peace had the man made unfit because he had a business elsewhere and the place was too near the dwellings.

Both sides will have counsel when the case is called.

CHOPPED HIS FOOT.

Former Councilman J. Walter Hosler had a painful accident to-day that will keep him at home for some days. While using a hatchet it slipped from his hand and the sharp point was buried in his foot. Blood flowed fast and oozed from the shoe nearly every step until a doctor was reached. Dr. R. E. Parker rendered surgical attention, and made Mr. Hosler feel as comfortable as possible.

WALLACE'S CIRCUS COMING.

A force of bill-posters and lithographers were in town to-day billing for the appearance of Wallace's Circus here September 23. Car No. 1 was here, in charge of Mr. W. R. Musgat. Paper was put up all over town and wagons were sent out to work the country.

MR. BOWEN'S CONDITION.

The condition of Mr. Joseph Bowen, who was injured by a falling tree yesterday at Jackson, N. C., was about the same to-day. Despite the fact that telegrams were sent to inquire how badly Mr. Bowen was injured, it has not yet been learned, notwithstanding two wires were sent asking specifically. Answers came that he was resting easily. The sufferer recognized a son, Joe Bowen, of Portsmouth.

MAY HAVE BEEN HURT.

Mrs. T. Barrow, of Smithfield, is very uneasy about her husband, Mr. Barrow, who was supposed to be on a train that was wrecked yesterday. He was expected to stop at Ponce de Leon Hotel, Roanoke, but had not been heard from up to to-day.

STABBED IN THE BACK.

A few days ago Pete Austin and Ike Spencer fought over 25 cents in Franklin. Austin stabbed his opponent in the back and was held to await Spencer's injuries.

BARGAIN AND SALE DEEDS.

Robert R. Prentiss to Leonidas J. Casen, a lot at Pinner and Mill streets; $500.

Max A. T. Weyhman to Jenkins Sharp, a lot in West Jericho; $20.

Robert R. Smith and wife to Jesse Crockett, one tract in Cypress district; $120.

SUNDAY MARRIAGE.

Mr. James Clifton Holland will next Sunday be wedded to Miss Stella A. Jones. The ceremony will be performed in the county. The bride-to-be is a daughter of former Justice William H. Jones. Mr. Holland is a farmer.

HERE AND THERE.

Concluding a stay with Suffolk friends Miss Abbie Wilson left to-day for her home in Norfolk.

Mr. George K. Lawshe has come home from a visit to friends on Eastern Shore, Va.

Miss Bettie Peake, of Churchland, who had been Miss Louise Britt's guest, went home to-day.

Mr. E. M. Quimby got back to-day from New York, where he went on schooner C. B. Leet.

Misses Lizzie Booker and Alma Elam left yesterday for Chase City, Va.

Mr. J. C. Dennis, of Norfolk, visited Suffolk relatives to-day.

Ben Jones, a white lunatic, was yesterday taken to an insane hospital from Southampton county.

Barge Magrie cleared to-day for Snow Hill, Md., in tow of the tug Maryland, with lumber from the Suffolk Sawmill Company.

Miss Sallie Sutton III with fever.

Mrs. C. H. Skinner returned to-day from a visit of several weeks to her old home in Brunswick, Me.

Major C. W. Wright and family have returned from the mountains.

A license was issued to-day for the marriage of John Lötia to Sarah Figg, colored.

Mr. Frank A. Halladay left last evening for New York, where he will stay two weeks.

(Communicated.)

The Randolph Society of St. Paul's Church met at the residence of the Misses Quimby Tuesday night, September 5th. After the meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Helen Quimby, the officers for the new year were elected. Then followed the evening's entertainment, a "watermelon party." Six watermelons having been hid in various parts of the yard, the guests were challenged to find them. The guests were permitted to search two by two, each couple having three minutes' time. The fortunate pair, Mrs. Mary Hutchins and Miss Katherine Holland, were awarded the prize, a "box of Huyler's," which was presented in a most happy and characteristic manner by one of Suffolk's young attorneys, Mr. R. W. Withers.

"The Cephus," a typical lover of the watermelon, performed on the banjo during the "hunt," after which refreshments were served.

VERDICT OF THE DREYFUS CASE

fus said that Captain Humbert's recollections were not exact.

Col. Jouaust: Did you apply to Colonel Sandherr with the view of entering the statistical section?

Dreyfus: "No, no."

Col. Jouaust: "Did you not express such a desire to your comrades?"

Dreyfus: "No."

MERCIER REAPPEARS.

General Mercier reappeared on the scene. After saying that the evidence of Captain Freystrater must have greatly influenced the judges and that he had been called a forger because of the evidence he gave in his deposition of orders that he had issued in 1894, that the Panizzardi telegram should not be taken into account. He said the sealed envelope handed to the first court-martial did not contain the Panizzardi telegram.

CERNUSCHI'S RECORD.

M. Labori said he regretted Cernuschi was not present, as counsel desired to question him, and in any case, M. Labori wanted to add to the dossier certain letters showing Cernuschi had suffered from insanity and was destitute of moral sense. The defense had discovered that applications had been made for Cernuschi's extradition, and he was pronounced to be altogether worthless and unreliable. Counsel also said that, although Colonel Schwartzkopp had been a political refugee, if Cernuschi had not left Austria he would have been placed in an asylum for the insane.

M. Labori then asked that a letter received from the witness Greiner should be read.

The government commissary admitted receiving the letter, but said it was of no importance.

LABORI WAXES WARM.

Counsel thought otherwise, and read a copy of the letter.

Colonel Jouaust remarked that if the letter had reached him he would not have made use of it as an argument to do with the Dreyfus case. This called forth murmurs of assent and dissent, and M. Labori retorted that he was of quite an opposite opinion. He said General Chamois had handed the court a letter from Colonel Schwartzkopp to his government, announcing that he was about to send them information regarding the real effectiveness of the Russian army.

Colonel Schwartzkopp had also mentioned the Paris and Toulon manoeuvres, which would explain the phrase "I am going to the manoeuvres." This letter was written a fortnight after the arrest of Dreyfus.

ESTERHAZY RAMPANT.

At the request of M. Labori, the evidence given by a witness named Ecclie before the Court of Cassation was read. It described how Esterhazy employed Ecclie to execute a sketch of a rifle which afterwards, Esterhazy said, he had sent abroad with an imaginary plan of mobilization.

After further evidence on this point, a letter from Esterhazy to General Roguet was read, in which the writer complained that no use was made of his information, and violently attacked M. Bertillon, who in regard to the role ought to be in an asylum for the insane or in a prison. Esterhazy complained of his miserable condition, described General de Boisdeffre as a scoundrel and the Echo de Paris as a "dirty Jew sheet," and adding that it was a mistake to abandon him and then prosecute him.

After repeating his threats, Esterhazy wrote that if he were the moral author of the bordereau he could not have supplied the information contained in it, and expressed surprise that nothing had been said in regard to the role played by Colonel Picquart. He then attacked, turn about, all the officers of the general staff.

Esterhazy declared: "I will say or do nothing to increase the dangers of the situation. But, I, an old and faithful servant, have been denounced and have fallen beneath the blows, after having been basely abandoned by the Boisdeffres, Billots and other generals."

Colonel Jouaust refused to hear any further evidence and adjourned the court for the usual brief interval.

THE GENERALS RETIRE.

The session was resumed at 10:15 a. m., when Major Carriere began his speech for the prosecution. This was a signal for the military witnesses to retire, and indeed the generals, they bowed to the judges and trooped out of court, in accordance with the orders of the Minister of War, General de Gallifet, to start to reform regiments within two hours of the beginning of the summing up of the prosecution.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 7.—Representative Hebrews have sent the following cablegram to Emperor William, of Germany:

"Relying upon your Imperial Majesty's well-known sense of right, we, Israelites of the city of Memphis, respectfully petition you to permit evidence within your knowledge and which may subvert the interests of justice and truth in the Dreyfus case, to be heard by the court-martial sitting at Rennes. We are endeavored to make this request from the fact that the whole civilized world is interested in the case on trial."

Venezuelan Revolutionists Banned.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, Sept. 7.—Senator Pulido, the charge d'affaires of Venezuela, this evening, in response to a cablegram sent by him, received a message from the foreign office of Venezuela saying: "The news of a new outbreak in Venezuela published yesterday is without any foundation."

An outbreak occurred in the interior some time ago, but, as stated at the time, the revolutionists were badly routed and their forces scattered and compelled to seek refuge in the mountains.

It was won by New Jersey. The distances were 200, 500 and 600 yards. Bertillon, who in regard to the role played by the Minister of War, General de Gallifet, to start to reform regiments within two hours of the beginning of the summing up of the prosecution.

AT KEY WEST.

YELLOW FEVER STATISTICS FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, Sept. 7.—Telegrams to the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service from Surgeon Carter, now at Key West, state that up to last night the American physicians had reported sixty-four cases of yellow fever at that point. He estimated that the Cuban physicians were in attendance upon many more cases, but as no reports had been made by them, it was impossible to give accurate figures. Dr. Carter expresses the opinion that Dr. McLannan, of the Navy Department, who is all with fever, will recover.

A message to the Surgeon General from Miami states that the one case reported from that point has been isolated.
